

When they take a Jordanian pilot and in a particularly barbaric fashion essentially set him on fire in a cage, when they take people out to a beach and one by one behead them, when they sell innocent women and young girls into slavery, over and over again, we have seen these horrific things happening, and it is time the world stood up to this group, both for the horrific things they are doing on historic artifacts which can't be brought back, but also the human lives that they have so callously extinguished. This group must be stopped. Let's hope that this evening we are at least taking a step in that direction.

I again thank Mr. ENGEL, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. LAWRENCE. Madam Speaker, as we vote on H.R. 1493 in the House today, I would like to share with you the series of unfortunate and barbaric events that have plagued The Cultural Museum of Mosul and robbed the people of Iraq, Afghanistan, and Pakistan of their historical lineage.

No stranger to war and tribal conflict, the people of Mosul, Iraq have suffered persecution and displacement under the Ottoman Empire, British colonial rule, and various tyrannical regimes. Despite all these hardships, Mosul was once a city of commercial importance to the region. Commerce and trade brought a rich exchange of history and culture to Mosul, which was preserved in the Museum of Mosul.

The museum provided a connection to a national identity and pride, which was once flourishing and prosperous. They say it is important to know your past so that you can learn from the mistakes of previous generations and better prepare for the future that is ahead. The people of Mosul were robbed of that opportunity in April of this year by ISIS. Just days before the reopening of the museum, which was looted during the Iraq War in 2003, ISIS released a horrific video showing militants using sledgehammers to demolish stone sculptures and other centuries-old artifacts.

The world watched in horror and disbelief as centuries of Assyrian history were obliterated in minutes. As we fight against the injustices perpetrated by ISIS militants around the world we must also fight to preserve the cultural integrity of these historical civilizations. I want to thank my colleagues on both sides of the aisle for their dedication in preserving the historical treasures of the people of Mosul. ISIS has robbed these people of their freedoms but we must protect their past so that they may have a better future.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I would like to begin by thanking Mr. ELIOT ENGEL, the Ranking Member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, for his bill, the Protect and Preserve International Cultural Property Act, H.R. 1493.

I am privileged to be the lead co-sponsor of this bill, just as I was last year.

This bill could not be more timely, given the depredations of ISIS that we see played out on our TV screens when we turn on the nightly news—the horrific beheadings and killing of Christians and other religious minorities such as Yazidis by Islamist fanatics.

These murderers help finance their terror in part by looting cultural antiquities and coins from areas of Syria and Iraq that they control.

Congress has already acted with respect to banning importation of “blood antiquities” from Iraq, which this bill would now extend to Syria. As such, this bill is part of the war on terror, helping to dry up sources of terror financing.

We also see that these fanatics will destroy what they cannot loot. This bill increases the inter-agency cooperation, including involvement of “Monuments Men” units of our armed forces, in striving to protect a cultural heritage which is part of our world's patrimony.

Finally, I want to highlight a provision of this bill that was not in the version we passed in the last Congress, but one which is an important addition, namely, a safe-harbor provision for those who seek to bring into the country important cultural artifacts that are being threatened with destruction. This safe harbor provision allows them to be placed in the temporary protective custody of the United States government or a museum.

I want to close by thanking Ranking Member ENGEL for introducing this important piece of legislation, and would like to thank him and all staff members who worked so hard on bringing this important legislation to the floor tonight.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. CHABOT) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1493, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

REMEMBERING THE FIRE-FIGHTERS LOST IN HOUSTON'S FIRE OFF THE SOUTHWEST FREEWAY

(Mr. OLSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. OLSON. Madam Speaker, May 31, 2013, 2 years ago yesterday, at 12:08 p.m., a call is made to Houston 911. A large fire was burning off the Southwest Freeway. At 12:11, 3 minutes later, station 51 arrived. At 12:16 p.m., 5 minutes after that, station 68 arrived. At 12:23, a mayday was heard over the radio. The roof had collapsed.

That call was the last alarm for four firefighters: Matthew Renaud, 35 years old, station 51; Robert Bebee, 41 years old, station 51 as well; Robert Garner, 29 years old, station 68; and a young lady from my hometown, Anne Sullivan, 24 years old, fire station 68. They are in God's hands, and we will never forget them.

HONORING RABBI LES GUTTERMAN

(Mr. CICILLINE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CICILLINE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Rabbi Les Gutterman, my rabbi and a man who has served for more than 40 years as the senior rabbi for Temple Beth-El in Providence, Rhode Island.

Rabbi Gutterman's unique insight and his sharp sense of humor have served the members of his congregation magnificently during times of personal struggle and times of great celebration.

As a member of the congregation at Temple Beth-El, I have often relied on Rabbi Gutterman's wise counsel and spiritual guidance, and I consider his friendship a great blessing in my life.

A native of Flint, Michigan, Rabbi Gutterman first came to Providence 45 years ago after earning a bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan and a Doctor of Divinity from Hebrew Union College.

At the time, just 27 years old, he could not have imagined the impact he would have on our State and on the families in his congregation. But just 3 years later, Rabbi Gutterman would be appointed the senior rabbi for Temple Beth-El, making him one of the youngest senior rabbis in the United States.

Today, he is known to all of us as “Rhode Island's rabbi,” a humble, caring servant of God who has tended to the spiritual needs of this great community for nearly half a century.

While we will miss his presence at Temple Beth-El, I know that all of us are wishing him, his wife Janet, and his daughters Rebecca and Elizabeth the very best as he embarks on a well-deserved retirement.

Thank you, Rabbi Gutterman, for your devotion to our community and for the gentle, caring guidance and love you have provided to us for so many years.

TRADE PROMOTION AUTHORITY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 6, 2015, the gentleman from Oklahoma (Mr. RUSSELL) is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. RUSSELL. Madam Speaker, with trade deals on the horizon, President Obama has asked Congress to grant him trade promotional authority, also called fast track, to “write the rules for the world's economy.” This measure would allow the President to pass sweeping trade partnerships without the input of the American people through their elected representatives in the normal process. Despite the various myths circulating about TPA, I sincerely believe that it is not in the best interest of our Nation, as written at this time.

You have heard it said that a vote against TPA is a vote against international trade, but actually, a vote against TPA is a vote for a better construct and trade agreement.

I am a strong supporter of trade when deals are negotiated strategically in the best interest of the United States economically, militarily, and diplomatically. With the President leaving office in just months, I have serious
